

AALO Energy Efficiency Program

AALO is reaching out to community members to talk about the LADWP Energy Efficiency program. There are a number of programs for residential customers (tenants, homeowners and landlords) that can help you save money. There are even programs that can help you get a new refrigerator! We want you to call our representatives for more information.

We have reached a number of community members at local churches in the past few weeks including New Zion Christian Fellowship, Greater Community Missionary Baptist Church, and New Paradise COGIC.

AALO Energy Program was presented to a large group of people at the Greater Community Missionary Baptist Church in Pacoima.

Informing the community. AALO Outreach Specialist Dana was able to connect with people after the church service at New Zion Christian Fellowship. Pastors Dennis Ware and Carol Ware are the pastors.

Beth Chatman, First Lady Greater Community Missionary Baptist Church welcomed AALO Project Coordinator, Minnie Winn (left) and learned more about energy efficiency.

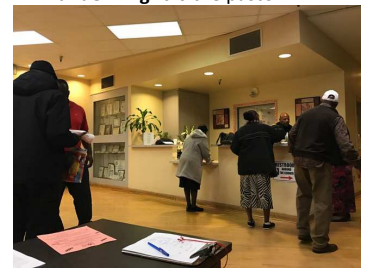

AALO Energy Efficiency Program

The LADWP offers a variety of rebates and programs for residential customers. The programs are offered to encourage customers in using energy and water more efficiently, to help the environment, as well as save on their utility bill.

People arrive and sign in at the New Paradise Church of God in Christ. Elder Emmanuel Knight is the pastor.

The (LADWP) is the nation's largest municipally-owned utility, providing safe, reliable and affordable electric and water service to nearly 4 million people!

LADWP offers the Consumer Rebate Program (CRP) to residential customers to promote the use of energy-efficient products. This program is designed to both educate and encourage LADWP residential customers to purchase and install qualifying products in their home.

Collecting community signatures.

For more information about all the energy saving programs available thru the LADWP Energy Saving Program please contact our representatives.
